

pace

Above: there were fewer examples of the bigger tanks from the post-war period at the show this year, with this Chieftain being one of the few British MBTs there.

Main photo left: those who regularly attend the show may recognise this tracked Rapier, but this year it came with a new owner who put it through its paces in the arena.

